CLEAN SWEEP IN CANTON

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS LISTED

ALL EXCEPT ONE NATIVES OF KWANGTUNG

[From Our Own Correspondent]

F. J. Perry (Gt. Britain), above, three times Wimbledon champion, culminated a brilliant month with a smashing win over Jack Crawford yesterday in the deciding match of the Challenge Round of the Davis Cup to give Gt. Britain the trophy for the ninth consecutive year.

GENERAL CHEN REPORTED ON WAY TO EUROPE

Rumours Not Denied Or Confirmed

DEPARTURE IN COMPANY WITH BROTHER

Strong rumours are current in Hong Kong this morning, to the effect that General Chen Chai-tang, the former military head of Kwangtung, left the Colony for Marseilles yesterday, together with a party of eight people, including his brother, Chen Wai-chow, and Ou Fong-pu, the former head of the Finance Department of Kwangtung.

It will be remembered that General Chen was ordered to remain in Hong Kong pending an enquiry into the finances of Kwangtung by the Nanking authorities; and for this reason the Nanking Government refused him a passport visa.

It is understood that General Chen was not in possession of a proper visa when he left yesterday.

As a result of these rumours Chinese newspapermen made enquiries at No. 13A, Macdonnell Road, the residence of General Chen, but no confirmation or denial of the reports current could be obtained from the inmates of the house.

TYphoon WARNING

A telegram received by the American Consulate-General from the Manila Observatory this morning stated that at 2.30 a.m. a typhoon was situated in about Longitude 124° E., Latitude 17° N., moving north-west. The position is about 100 miles east of the northern part of Luzon Island.

Counsel submitted that the Crown's witness was an accomplice and admitted his complicity in the attempt to murder Mr. Wang Ching-wei. During his rigid cross-examination in the Police Court by Mr. Sin, the witness Wong Yang-shan disclosed two serious discrepancies in his

WRITER LEAVES £100,000

London, To-day.—The will of R. B. Cunningham-Graham, the writer and traveller who died last March, has been proved in respect of personal estate in Great Britain, at £100,000.—British Wireless Service.

When shop girls employed by Mme. Chanel, the famous Parisian couturiere, joined the French strikers last month, Mme. Chanel, at extreme right, offered to turn the entire business over to the employees, to be operated on a co-operative basis. She offered to stay on as manager, on a salary basis. The proposal was refused.

The new appointments are as follows:

Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, General Huang Mou-sung; Commissioner of Finance, Mr. Soong Tse-liang; Commissioner of Reconstruction, Mr. Liu Wei-chi; Commissioner of Civil Affairs, General Huang Ying-yu;

Commissioner of Education, Mr. Hsu Hsing-ching. Mayor Liu Chi-wen is relieved of his post and is replaced by Mr. Tseng Yang-pu, at present Vice-Minister of Railways. Mr. Liu will become a member of the Provincial Government without portfolio.

The present Chairman, Mr. Lam Wan-koy, is transferred to Nanking to become the chairman of the Mongolian and Tibetan Affairs Commission. Other Provincial Commissioners are relieved of their duties.

Dr. Tai Yen-tsai, son-in-law of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, is appointed Superintendent of Canton Customs in place of Colonel Chow Po-heng.

The Kuling appointments represent a clean sweep of Canton officialdom. Except the Finance Commissioner, Mr. Soong, all the other new appointees are natives of Kwangtung.

Canton, Later: Determined to carry on their defiance against General Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Nanking Government, Kwangsi militarists are making preparations to resist the invasion of their province by Nanking forces.

Both Generals Li Chung-jen and Pai Hsung-hsi have decided not to accept the Nanking appointments, for once they leave their native province and their troops, their military career will end.

Kwangtung troops have been sent to Shuihing and Dooshing on the West River to guard against the invasion of the Kwangsi forces.

Several Nanking divisions will be placed under the command of General Huang Shaohsiung in his coming "pacification" of Kwangsi. These troops will attack Kwangsi from Hunan and Kweichow.

Because of its mountainous nature, Kwangsi will be able to hold out against Nanking for about three months, provided the divisional commanders and their soldiers are ready to fight.

GERMAN SOUVENIR FOR COL. LINDBERGH

Berlin, to-day.—Colonel and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh were guests at a luncheon given yesterday by General Goering, at which the American flier was handed a souvenir pin of the German Aero Club, by General Milch.—Trans-Ocean Service.

BRITAIN RETAINS DAVIS CUP

PERRY ROUTS CRAWFORD IN DECIDING MATCH

Wimbledon, To-day.

Great Britain won the Davis Cup for the fourth consecutive year yesterday, when Fred Perry, three times Wimbledon champion, won the deciding match against Jack Crawford (Australia), a former Wimbledon champion, in straight sets after Adrian Quist, the Australian champion, had beaten H. W. "Bunny" Austin to place the two countries on level terms at 2-all.

Before play was resumed yesterday, Great Britain were leading Australia by 2 matches to 1, having won the first two singles encounters and lost the doubles clash.

Play was delayed 90 minutes owing to rain. The match between Quist and Austin was a battle of similar styles, long baseline rallies and sweeping drives by both players to the corners of the court providing the outstanding features of the clash.

Both players waited for the other's errors, although Austin drove better on both his fore and backhands. He was, however, weak in his overhead work, whereas Quist smashed brilliantly and sent over some very fine services, apart from three foot-faults in the second set, which appeared to upset him.

Austin led by 5 games to 3 in the third set as the result of Quist's errors, but lost his length and accuracy at the crucial moment, netting backhand shots and missing easy smashes for the Australian champion to take the set at 7-5.

PERRY AT HIS BEST

Perry, following his recent Wimbledon triumphs, was seen in his best form against Jack Crawford in the vital deciding match. He varied his pace and length with masterly precision and his placements were perfect, while he smashed judiciously.

Crawford played as well as Perry let him, sharply angled volleys occasionally beating the 1936 champion, but Perry's keen sense of anticipation enabled him to return almost everything which came over the net.

Perry led 3-1 and 3-2 in the first set, 3-2 and 5-3 in the second, and 5 games to 1 in the lead in the third when Crawford rallied to take two games. This set was featured by many splendid long rallies.

Full scores of the encounter were:

UNBELIEVABLE ATROCITIES

THRILLING EXPERIENCE OF ENGLISHMAN ANXIOUS PERIOD WHILE AT RED HEADQUARTERS

St. Lazaire, To-day.

Terrible stories of atrocities by the mob during the fighting at San Sebastian are told by French refugees who have just arrived. A Frenchman who had been on holiday at San Sebastian said that the corpse of a police inspector who had killed a girl during the previous troubles was seized by a crowd of members of the Popular Front, mutilated and thrown up and down as if it were a football.

A French woman-resident of San Sebastian, who fled after the mob had looted her house, declared that children were given loaded revolvers and pointed them at passers-by jokingly. Sometimes the revolver went off and the victim was killed or badly injured.

Marseilles: A thrilling story was told by an Englishman named Roland Powell, who arrived on board the British destroyer Gallant from Barcelona with 54 other refugees. He said that on the day after the big fighting he was taking snapshots of a demolished Italian building when half a dozen Reds rushed at him, poked guns in his ribs and smashed his camera. The leader of the Reds was wearing a steel helmet, a blue singlet and no coat or shoes. Half a leg of his trousers was torn away. He brandished a huge sword.

Mr. Powell was taken to the Red headquarters. He told them he was a Britisher, but they insisted that he was a German. Finally he was escorted to his hotel and produced his passport, which convinced the Reds.

Marseilles: The revolt in Spain is a lucky thing for the Englishman William Robert Lamb, who was recently sentenced at Barcelona to 17 years' imprisonment on a charge of being concerned in the death of the cashier of a restaurant. When all the prisoners in Barcelona were opened during the fighting he walked out unquestioned and arrived here yesterday on a British warship, being welcomed by his parents.

U.S. ACTION

Washington: The battleships Arkansas and Wyoming will arrive at Bilbao to-day and take off the Coastguard cadets from the cutter Cayuga and replace them with regular navy details. The U.S. cruiser Quincy has arrived at Alicante and is awaiting the arrival of 148 American and other foreigners at present taking refuge in the American Embassy at Madrid.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

FOREIGN EXODUS

London: Hundreds of foreigners are still leaving Spain. Over 300 arrived yesterday at Marseilles, Bayonne, Lisbon and Genoa. British warships have evacuated 735 people from Catalonia since the trouble began. The British Consulate at Marseilles says that there are still 1,600 Britons in Barcelona.

General France is reported to have crossed from Morocco to Spain, intending to lead a big attack on Madrid, while the Government broadcast a communiqué speaks of big offensives by the Government troops, with a view to ending the insurrection.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

THREE MAIN OPERATIONS

Madrid: The Spanish rebellion has been enjoying a period of quiet. Three important operations are taking place, but it will still be a matter of days, possibly hours, before a decisive result can be realised.

BRITISH ARMED FORCES NEW INFANTRY SECTION

SUPPLEMENTARY RESERVE TRAINING

London, To-day.

In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon the Secretary for War, Mr. A. Duff Cooper, in reply to a question, announced the decision to create a new Infantry Section of the Supplementary Reserve, with an initial establishment of 17,000 men. Enlistment which would be for general service in the infantry for six years, with option of re-engagement for a further period of four years, would be open to unmarried men from 17 to 25 years. The men enlisting would be required to do 16 weeks' training in the first year and 14 days' training annually thereafter.

They would receive a free issue of clothing on enlistment and during the training period full pay as for the regular infantry of the line, with an annual bounty of £6, conditional on their carrying out the required annual training.—British Wireless Service.

TROUBLE AT GLAYE

Thrilling Mystery Tale

The Trouble at Glaye, by Mrs. Baillie Reynolds.

When Adam Damerel and Deanne Hereford came to the remote Castle of Glaye they little thought of the hornets' nest they were stirring up. A somewhat grudging hospitality was offered to the two young men; and what Adam found in his bedchamber upon retiring to rest was something so unexpected that it changed the whole current of his being.

The two young men unearthed a pilot which 50 years ago would have been deemed incredible; and the story thereafter is the history of their escape, taking with them a young girl whose birth and fortune rendered her a necessary tool to the plotters. How, after they had successfully got her away, she was recaptured and brought back to her prison; and the subsequent efforts of her friends to outwit the criminals, keep the reader on tenterhooks until the final siege of Glaye exposes the formidable conspiracy.

COMING EVENTS AND SHADOWS

Exciting Mystery Thriller

The Corpse with the Dirty Face, By R. A. J. Walling.

If ever coming events cast their shadows before them, the yellow sunlight of Sunday afternoon on Bramblestead Common should have outlined the ugly shape of things in Cumberland Court on Monday.

For, on Monday, Mr. Pollerby, Mr. Cleeve and Mr. Tolefree found Mr. Broadall lying on the floor of his handsome office. He had been strangled. The place was strewn with clues, but they did not fit together. The key-piece was missing. So the clues might mean a burglary and a rough-house, or they might point to several people, including Pollerby and Cleeve (who had both been in Cumberland Court on the Monday night) or young Budhead. In fact, Tolefree's old crony, Pierce, complained, it snowed murderers.

What actually did happen we leave to the ingenious Mr. R. A. J. Walling, via the ingenious Mr. Tolefree, to show.

A WILD WEST STORY

Frontier Peril And Adventure

Sorreltop, by William MacLeod Bain.

A live story of frontier peril and adventure. It may seem a far cry from the Wild West, with its shooting cowboys and bucking horses, to the Frenchman who first said, Cherchez la femme; but nothing can ever be more certain than that if Ruth Chiswick had not consented to elope with Lou Howard, and then altered her mind, this story would have taken a totally different course.

The "wilful streak" in a perfectly loyal and loving woman! Ruth had hoped by this runaway marriage to heal the feud between two families. A mysterious stranger arrived unexpectedly in the lawless town of Tail Holt, and if Ruth made a mistake in agreeing to the elopement, she made none when she stepped back from the precipice just in time.

BIOGRAPHY OF A MINER

"Peter Lee's" Life Story

Peter Lee, by Jack Lawson, M.P.

Six-foot-one, with great grey eyes set in a fact that made men turn to take a second look—that was Peter Lee, and his life was as arresting as his appearance.

At 10 years of age he became a pit lad, and the pits revealed to him the inevitable purpose of his life. Whether hewing coal in Britain, America, or Africa, he was a beloved leader of men—himself a man whose powerful convictions burst the restraining bands of fear and convention.

Fiction pales beside the fact of Peter Lee's life. In this book the story of how he worked, wandered, fought, and finally led miners and communities is told by one who knew him intimately, and admired him whole-heartedly.

QUALITY OF YOUTH

Delicately Written Autobiography

Ten Years, by Dennis Stoll.

A delicately written autobiography, which tells of the hopes, fears and ambitions and experiences of adolescence and young manhood. When he was 16 Dennis Stoll edited and printed his own paper. When he was 20 he wrote a very convincing book on Religion. He is now a composer of considerable merit, and is tremendously interested in all the arts.

This book holds that rare quality of youth which the jaded reader finds so seldom, and it tells part of the life story of a most interesting personality.

HOT WEATHER, different food or water, the change from home to some holiday resort . . . these and other factors often start the dreaded diarrhea. Prompt treatment is imperative. Read what other mothers have found best.

"My baby was so bad with summer complaint that we despaired of saving her. A friend advised Baby's Own Tablet. After the third dose baby fell asleep. By noon next day she took her usual bottle feeding."

Mrs. H. Allard, Whitchurch. Another lady who knew the effectiveness of Baby's Own Tablets gave them to a friend's sick child. She writes:

"Last summer, at a camp where I was staying, a young child contracted summer complaint. I gave her some Baby's Own Tablets and they improved her condition right away. I have used them for my own children during teething and would not be without them."

Mrs. Adkins, Toronto. Baby's Own Tablets form a harmless, efficient corrective for colic, indigestion, teething, simple fever, fretfulness, constipation and colds, as well as diarrhea.

They are certified safe and contain no opiates or narcotics. Obtainable from medicine dealers everywhere.

Baby's Own Tablets

DR. LEAKEY'S LIFE

African And English Adventures

His Life And Adventures, by L. S. B. Leakey.

When Dr. Leakey was a boy he was more at home in an African village than he could possibly have been in an English city, for he was born at Kabete in Kenya, the son of Canon H. Leakey, at that time a missionary. He played, hunted and lived with the boys of his age-group of the Kikuyu, and strange though it may seem—it was with those semi-savage playmates that he—the white boy among them—first became interested in ornithology and anthropology.

That was less than 30 years ago. Then he came to England to go to school at Weymouth College, St. John's College, Cambridge, followed, but he has returned to East Africa five times since—four times as leader of Archaeological Research Expeditions. This year he was the Munro Lecturer at Edinburgh University—the youngest scientist ever to have been invited to deliver the lecture.

Native lore and customs of the Kikuyu, the birds and animals of the African wild, a "strange" English boy in an English public School, life at Cambridge, scientific expeditions to Africa comprise the wide experience and various activities and adventures which are related in this remarkable book.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE

Strangest Case In Legal History

The Tichborne Case, by Lord Just Maugham.

Is it possible to find genuine romance in real life, even if the facts are unaltered and unimproved by a romantic historian? Those who doubt it should read this true account of the most celebrated case in English legal history. Lord Maugham, now a Lord of Appeal after a brilliant career at the Bar, has been concerned mainly to tell a plain, unvarnished tale, and to criticise for the benefit of lawyers and laymen the conduct of a very remarkable case; but he has not been able—perhaps he has not tried—to deprive of its element of romantic drama this strange story, ranging over many lands and relative to many curious persons.

Can a mother be deceived as to her own child, or 300 persons be mistaken as to one who was their old acquaintance or friend? Those who are interested in these human problems will find much to enthrall and to entertain in this book.

LAWN BOWLS INTERPORT COMMITTEE ELECTED

MANY CLUBS WELL REPRESENTED FOR TRIAL MATCHES

THE appointment of a Selection Committee in connection with the Interport Bowls matches with Shanghai in the Northern port provided the main item for discussion at the meeting of the Committee of the Lawn Bowls Association held in the Board Room of the South China Morning Post yesterday.

Mr. C. J. Tacchi was in the chair and others present were Messrs. C. B. Hosking, Hon. Secretary; A. O. Madar (Indian Recreation Club), F. J. Lumby (Hong Kong Electric Recreation Club), P. E. Knight (Civil Service Cricket Club), J. S. Riddell (Police Recreation Club), H. Overy (Kowloon Cricket Club), F. X. M. Silva (Club de Recreio), G. H. Sherriff (Kowloon Bowling Green Club), J. V. Ramsay (Kowloon Docks Recreation Club), E. el Arculli (Craigengower Cricket Club) and J. Russell (Hong Kong Football Club).

The Hon. Secretary stated that correspondence had passed between him and the Shanghai Association with regard to the suitability of the date for the Interport and the Committee agreed that the team should sail by the Empress of Asia on September 4, as that was the most convenient boat about that time.

PASSING OF KHOO HOOI-HYE

News has been received in the Colony of the death of Khoo Hooi-hye, the Shanghai lawn tennis Interporter he played against the Colony in 1931 and former Shanghai champion.

A. M. G. PHILIPPENS, the popular captain of the Kowloon Cricket Club "C" Division (2) team, was born in Hasselt, Belgium, in 1906 and was educated at the Athenee Institute de Commerce.

The following is today's programme:

"B" DIVISION		C.T.O.-DAY
C.R.C. "A"	v University	(Causeway Bay)
C.R.C. "A"	v C.S.C.C.	(Causeway Bay)

On arriving in the Colony, Philippens took up hockey and cricket, representing the Central British Association in the Marmal Hockey Tournament and playing cricket occasionally for the K.C.C. second eleven — he claims never to have been dismissed for a "duck"!

Later, he took to tennis again and played for the K.C.C. "C" Division (2) team, being elected captain of the team this season.

THRILLING ANGLO-GERMAN MEN'S SEMI-FINAL

FRED PERRY FULLY EXTENDED BY DONALD BUDGE

(By A. Wallis Myers)

London, July 2. HISTORY has repeated itself, and Germany, for the second successive year, will challenge F. J. Perry, the British holder, for the singles title at Wimbledon. Yesterday, in the semi-final, Perry beat his Californian opponent, Donald Budge, 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, while Baron von Cramm, who had deprived Perry of the French Championship in Paris a month ago, defeated H. W. Austin, England's No. 2, 8-6, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2.

The final will be decided to-morrow. In fixing that day instead of Saturday the committee are not only following the precedent of recent years, but had probably considered the anxiety of the German team to return to the Continent as early as possible to prepare for their Davis Cup match against Yugoslavia at Zagreb.

It was for this reason that Von Cramm and Henkel retired in the doubles yesterday to Allison and Van Ryn when within a stroke of victory, for the final of this event is fixed for Saturday and the German team have planned to leave London to-morrow night.

It is tribute to the German champion's disciplined training and in his philosophic temperament and unspoilt ardour he resembles the late Anthony Wilding—that he can participate in six weeks of intensive match play without complaining that he is either blasé or tired.

In the last two months he has played in four Davis Cup matches, won the French title, and reached the final at Wimbledon.

If Germany prevails at Zagreb, as may be expected, he will return to Wimbledon to meet Australia in the Davis Cup inter-zone contest, and, if victory rewards the quest of the German team, will be facing Perry and Austin again on the centre court.

Even Tilden, in his palmiest day, had not enjoyed the call of the courts so zealously.

Feast Of Fine Driving

There was a mighty, concentrated gallery to see the two home stalwarts face the challenge of the invaders. The crowd was rewarded by two fine and superbly-fought matches, each running to four sets and each occupying an hour and a half.

The first between Austin and Von Cramm, provided, I thought, more refined and rhythmic tennis than the second, although the champion's struggle with Budge was waged at a faster tempo, and, providing more close-ranged thrusts, had a greater variety of spectacular attacks.

In both struggles the victor threw in his physical reserves at the critical stage and advanced behind them, but whereas Von Cramm had the moral security of a two-set lead and could afford to ease up in the third set, Perry had no such advantage.

Brute Force

Budge had stolen the first set from under his nose and never looked like yielding ground that

OMAHA'S TWO GREAT BIDS TO WIN

Beaten By A Neck By Taj Akbar

The great four-year-old American racehorse Omaha who made turf history by his gallant tussle with Quashed for the Gold Cup at Ascot last month, put up another fine but again unsuccessful performance at Newmarket on July 2.

Giving Taj Akbar, the second in the Derby, the generous allowance of 13lb—6lb more than weight for age—in the Princess Stakes, he was beaten only by a neck.

The results was:

Aga Khan's Taj Akbar (Fairway Stable) 2; Mr. W. Woodward's Omaha (Gallop Fox Stable) 2; Mr. J. A. de Rothschild's Esquemeling (Le Vol-en-Vent) 3.

Won by a neck: five lengths. Betting 11 to 8 on Omaha; 4 to 1 on Taj Akbar; 9 to 1 on Esquemeling.

H.K.F.A. COUNCIL MEETING

Big Agenda For Next Tuesday

A meeting of the Council of the Hong Kong Football Association will be held in the Sports Club, King's Building, next Tuesday, at 5.30 p.m., to elect an Honorary Secretary, to appoint Treasurers, and decide their remuneration, to appoint an Appeals Board, to appoint a Management Committee consisting of Referees' Sub-Committee, Emergency Sub-Committee, and Chairman, Grounds Sub-Committee.

To elect a Grounds Sub-Committee, and to decide the number of free passes to be issued to grounds, to appoint an Asst. Hon. Secretary, to decide on the medals to be purchased for the season 1936-37 and Correspondence.

BIG GAME POSTPONED

A heavy shower of rain just before 5.20 p.m. caused the "A" Division Lawn Tennis League game between the K.C.C. and Chinese R.C. "A" at the K.C.C. to be postponed. Luis Ding-cheong, in Tak-chuen, Tsui Yan-pui, C. C. Luk, E. C. and E. F. Fincher, G. Clarke and A. E. P. Guest, however, enjoyed a knock-up later in the afternoon.

The results was:

Aga Khan's Taj Akbar (Fairway Stable) 2; Mr. W. Woodward's Omaha (Gallop Fox Stable) 2; Mr. J. A. de Rothschild's Esquemeling (Le Vol-en-Vent) 3.

Won by a neck: five lengths. Betting 11 to 8 on Omaha; 4 to 1 on Taj Akbar; 9 to 1 on Esquemeling.

Taj Akbar will not be seriously considered until he has met better opponents than those encountered on his Western tour. An eliminating contest is being arranged between Breslin and Feldman.

Ex-champions, Jack Sharkey and Max Baer, Phil Brubaker, Jorge Breslin, Abe Feldman and Al Ettore are mentioned as men whom Louis must beat before he can be considered as a championship contender.

Max Baer will not be seriously considered until he has met better opponents than those encountered on his Western tour. An

GREAT FINISHES AT THE OLYMPIC TRY-OUT.

BRILLIANT GOLF SEEN
REMARKABLE END TO THE FRENCH OPEN

Dallemande Ties With Cotton

FRENCHMAN'S 66 IN LAST ROUND

St Germain, July 1. Henry Cotton and Marcel Dallemande, the local professional, tied with 277 in the 72 holes of the French Open championship here, and will replay over 36 holes to-morrow. The way Dallemande equalled Cotton's score when the latter had seemed certain to win was the most spectacular feat ever seen in the French championships.

He was set to get a 65 over the 5,800 yards course, which has a par of 73 and a scratch of 76. Out in 34, he appeared to have a slender chance, but he came home in a magnificent 32, and when his putt of 7 ft. on the home green dropped in there was loud and prolonged cheering.

Cotton had a poor round this morning compared with his two of yesterday. Bad putting was the chief cause of his taking 74. Dallemande reduced Cotton's lead by four strokes by going round in 70. At the eighth and ninth holes his putts of two feet just failed to drop.

Cotton's Five 3's

It looked as if the championship was in Cotton's pocket when he returned a 69 for his fourth round for an aggregate of 277. He was out in 36 and home in 33, and had five 3's in his round.

Dallemande, who had turned in a 69 for his last round at Hoylake, went about his business in the same fashion. Hitting long drives, with beautiful iron shots up to the pin, he was out in 34.

Earned Replay

At the tenth his putt just stayed out, but he reeled off par figures or birdies all the way home. With a 7ft putt for a tie, the ball went straight and true and earned him the replay. He was home in 31.

The outstanding feature of the gala will be the Ladies' 200 Metres free-style Open Relay, which is expected to draw teams from the Chinese Bathing Club, the South China Athletic Association, the Chinese Athletic Association, the Chung Shing Benevolent Society, and possibly the Victoria Recreation Club.

The latter club could field a very strong team with Mrs. McMahon, Miss D. Hunt and Miss V. Thirlwall as their three outstanding swimmers, but the fourth berth will present a difficult problem.

Following the gala, the prizes won during last Sunday's harbour swim, held under the auspices of the C.B.C., will be distributed by that well-known Chinese philanthropist Mr. Aw Boon-haw, who has kindly donated the prizes for to-night's events.

Capt. Francis Francis, of Sunningdale, beat the amateur record for the course with a round of 68, to give him an aggregate of 298. He was the leading amateur in the championship.

There will be honour and glory only for the winner in to-morrow's play-off as the first prize is to be divided equally between the dead-heaters. Each received £50. (Dallemande won the play-off with two rounds of 69 & 70, while Cotton returned two 70's).

GOODWOOD

Solerina Wins The Stewards' Cup

London, To-day. Heavy showers marked the opening day for the Goodwood Meeting and prevented the usual picturesquely scenes, but the going was good.

The big race of the day, the Stewards' Cup, resulted in a victory for Mrs. Mackenzie's filly Solerina, which was backed at 10 to 1 and which won by three lengths from Mr. Monkhouse's Angelbread, a 20 to 1 chance, a short head separating the latter from Mr. Harmsworth's Braemar, backed at 33 to 1.

Aymurra, the favourite, which started at 8 to 1, was not among the first nine. — Reuter.

LAWN BOWLS INTERPORT COMMITTEE ELECTED

Owing to the fact that N. J. Bebbington is in hospital he will not be able to participate further in the Open Binks Championship, and the question of a substitute was brought up. It was found that the rules permitted a substitute being brought in, but the proviso was that the substitute must be one who has not entered in the Rinks Competition this season.

Permission was also granted for the postponement of the Open Pairs tie, which was to have been played to-day, between J. E. Henson and S. A. Bright and F. X. M. da Silva and J. E. Noronha, owing to pressure of work of the last named.

This game will now be played next Wednesday.

The following were elected members of the Interport Selection Committee:—Messrs. J. V. Barnsby, G. H. Sheriff, E. el Arculli, J. Russell, S. Deacon and the Hon. Secretary.

The following players have been nominated by their clubs for the Interport and will be available to make the trip if selected:

J. V. V. Elphick, and F. X. M. da Silva (Ricardo); A. Hyde-Ley (Keweenaw Croquet Club); H. H. Rose (Keweenaw Rowing Green Club); J. S. Landolt, C. S. Roselli, D. Rossiter, W. Ward (Craginwood Cricket Club); P. P. Knight and J. F. Macgowan (Civil Service Cricket Club); L. Gleatman and W. D. Bell (Police Recreation Club).

A Magnificent Duel

Of course the whole arena was on tip-toe for the mile. The duel between Wooderson and Lovelock was a sort of return race, for Wooderson amazed the athletic world last year by beating the famous New Zealander.

Lovelock did not avenge his defeat as he had hoped, for the result was similar. This time Graham, the Scottish champion, set the pace, Wooderson lying fifth and Lovelock close at his heels.

At the end of the lap Wooderson came up into second place behind Graham, and Lovelock hung on to him.

Wooderson Leads

So the runners continued through the second lap. At the third Comes jumped clear, but Wooderson bestirred himself when the bell went and strode out grandly into the lead. Lovelock was close behind him still, with Comes nearby and Graham a gallant also ran.

Into the straight swept Wooderson, first, but only just first, for Lovelock clung tenaciously to him, yard by yard. Slowly, almost imperceptibly, as the tape drew near, Wooderson made a gap between them, and amid cheering that was heard all over Shepherd's Bush, he won by a yard.

HEADLINES

Mr. A. P. Herbert has probably achieved the all-time best with his "cannibal" headlines: "Britannia rules the waves"—"Britain Ocean Monopoly Bid"—"England has saved herself by her exertions, and will, I trust, save Europe by her example"—"British Activity Sequel Forecast."

A argument between two factions of the Church of Christ in Slater, Mo., many years ago resulted in a split—one group insisting no music should be played in the church building. They acquired a new site about 5 miles from town, and erected their building, purposely making the doors and windows so small that no organ or piano could be brought into the building. In Book 117, page 542 of the Records of Saline County, Missouri, appears a deed conveying the land with the following restriction: ". . . to have and to hold for the use of said Church of Christ upon the express condition that no organ or other musical instrument be used or kept . . .". The deed is dated Nov. 25, 1905.

Among the "Mizzen" The captain of a sailing vessel was questioning a rookie sailor regarding his knowledge of ships and the sea. After repeatedly receiving wrong answers, in desperation, he asked:

"Where's the mizzenmast?" "I don't know," replied the aspiring seaman. "How long has it been Mizzen?"

Peace "What's this? Bought a saxophone?" demanded the wife. "No; I just borrowed it from a neighbour."

"What for? You can't play it."

"Neither can he while I've got it."

"So you bought a radio thinking it would keep your children home in the evenings?"

"Yes. But now it's worse. They wait around until the announcer says, 'Good night, everybody.'"

NOTIFIABLE DISEASES

One case (with one death) of smallpox, eight cases (with one death) of diphtheria, seven cases (one imported; with two deaths) of enteric fever, and one case of cerebro-spinal fever were reported to the local Health authorities during the week ended last Saturday. In the same period 65 deaths from tuberculosis were notified. In the 24 hours ended on Monday one case each of enteric fever and measles were reported.

The s.s. President Lincoln will sail from Kowloon Wharf at 6 p.m. to-morrow for Shanghai, Kobe, Yokohama, Honolulu, San Francisco, thence to Los Angeles, and the Panama Canal to New York. The President Hoover will arrive in Hong Kong on Friday morning and is scheduled to sail for Manila at 6 p.m. the same day.

Bellion is designed to restore the monarchy or to usher in a Fascist dictatorship of some sort, probably military. But the second alternative seems the more likely.

And meanwhile all the riff-raff of the country is taking a glorious opportunity to practise every variety of excess. As is usual in these cases, the greatest enmity is shown towards the Church. Nothing can possibly justify the excesses of which news has already filtered through—the burning of convents, the murder of priests and nuns, the wholesale sacking of religious buildings, the frightful acts of sacrifice and sabotage against Church property. It is a terrible thing that the work of centuries in the fields of education, care of the poor and all the multifarious charitable and religious activities of the Church should be wiped out in the twinkling of an eye, even if the process were not attended by such revolting excesses against the persons of pastors and nuns who have given their lives to the carrying on of this work. It is a concomitant of the Communist State that the Church and all its works should be annihilated. First Russia, then Mexico, then Spain. It is a tragic and most heart-rending development, which can only be deplored by all, regardless of one's personal religion.

PROBLEM OF THE
BAD LITTLE BOYINFLUENCES WHICH GO
TO MAKE CRIMINALS“JUVENILE DELINQUENCY” IMPLIES
A NEGATIVE ATTITUDE

(By John Connell)

THERE has been a considerable flutter recently because it has been discovered that the "peak age" for juvenile crime is 13. Anyone who knows the first beginnings of working amongst the young would have said that this was the kind of fact which was self-evident without statistical proof.

Thirteen seems desperately young to be a "criminal". If any man, honestly remembering himself at 13, believes that he possessed a highly developed social morality, he had better think again. Personal morality, perhaps; gang loyalty, almost certainly. The average 13-year-old sways between moods of intense priggishness and ferocious gangsterdom. In one mood he is the angel-faced choirboy singing, and loving himself as he sings "There is a green hill." In the other mood he is Public Enemy Number One.

"Crime" At Thirteen

No one says his prayers with more single-minded earnestness than the boy of 13 who knows that he is going to be confirmed in three weeks' time; no one is more convinced of the enormity of sin and the wonder of repentance.

But no one is more of a damn nuisance about the house, kicking his heels on the doors, making muddy fingerprints on the wallpaper, trying to stew elderberry wine in the bathroom basin. No one is more of a pest in the apple-orchard, in the form-room or hanging around the garage and saying:

"Please, can't I drive her just once down the road, Uncle? I'm a wizard driver."

If you think about your godchildren and your nephews and your sons, at this age, you admit their exasperation, but they do not seem to you criminal.

It seems to me that much more concentration ought to be laid on means to stop boys getting into trouble" at all the first time. Juvenile delinquency is one of the most difficult problems of our time just because we call it delinquency, because we think about doing good for boys after they have become delinquents, and not before.

HELPFUL SCIENCE INVENTIONS WHICH SAVE THOUSANDS

Work Of "Taxpayers' Scientists"

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH

Several of the most important patents which chemical engineers from all over the world were inspecting at the Chemical Plant Exhibition in the Central Hall, Westminster, recently are the inventions of British Government scientists. They are part of the work of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research, on which the taxpayers spend £500,000 a year.

An official of the Department stated that about 30 patents are applied for every year. Some of them are the means of saving hundreds of thousands of pounds to industry and of cutting down expensive foreign imports. A typical example is a new textile mercerising agent, which can be manufactured for 4s a gallon, as compared with £1 a gallon paid for a foreign product.

"Quinoline"

The latest Government invention is "quinoline," a substance which prevents aeroplane fuel from corroding the magnesium-alloy tanks. The belief that "quinoline" actually improves the power of the petrol is now determined by further research.

The most important invention by a "tax-payers' scientist" in recent years is the Townsend ring, a patent cowling for radial engines, which adds 8 or 10 m.p.h. to an aeroplane's speed. It was invented by Dr. Townsend, of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research.

Discovery Came To Nothing

Sometimes what seems like a remarkable invention comes to nothing. The Government has patented a process for obtaining petrol and oil from rubber. When it was invented rubber cost 2d. per lb. Now, with rubber at 8d no one would think of exploiting it.

Despite its many patents, the Department has no "professional" inventors. Almost all the discoveries come incidentally in the course of fundamental research. Dr. Townsend, for instance, was studying aerodynamics, not engine-cowling, when he devised his remarkable ring.

Often quite junior workers make the discoveries. While a senior scientist may be given the highly skilled, but unoriginal, task of making delicate measurements, his junior may be handling materials from which an unexpected process springs.

Unlike commercial firms Government scientists never keep their secrets longer than they can help. As soon as a new process or invention is seen to have commercial possibilities, it is passed on to British industry.

EX-PLANTER FROM MALAYA DEAD

Mr. F. A. Trollope

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE CAUSE OF DEATH.

Mr. Frank Anthony Trollope, aged 64, a retired planter from the P.M.S., died, it is learned, at his residence at Taipo Road on Saturday morning, and was buried yesterday at Happy Valley.

He came to Hong Kong about two months ago for a six months' visit. On Friday night he went to bed as usual, apparently in the best of health, but according to his servants, he died about 1 a.m. after coughing for a short while.

Suspicious of his sudden demise, the police took the case in hand and held a post mortem. They are now perfectly satisfied that death was due to natural causes, namely, high blood pressure.

JAPANESE BEES COMING TO CHINA AGAIN WEST AFRICA MUCH BETTER

Great Improvement In Sanitation

CANNOT NOW BE CALLED "WHITE MAN'S GRAVE"

West Africa can no longer with justice be termed the "White Man's Grave." This is evident from the "Vital Statistics of Non-Native Officials," issued recently by the Crown Agents for the Colonies. They show that a remarkable all-round improvement has taken place during the past 30 years.

In 1905 the number of Europeans in service in Gambia, Sierra Leone, the Gold Coast and Nigeria was 1,491. In 1935 the number was more than doubled—2,995, including 134 women officials—yet the

LOW-FLYING FATALITY IN BELGIUM

Woman Killed By Plane And Companion Injured

Brussels.—A 34-year-old woman was killed and her companion injured at Wendenne, near Blankenberghe, recently when a plane flying low hit them while they were walking.

It is understood that a prosecution is likely.

PROBLEM OF THE BAD LITTLE BOY

The State spends annually a very large sum of money—for the current year on approved schools alone, £30,250—on looking after children who have gone wrong; the whole burden of supplying the facilities which are likely to keep them from going wrong, which are the alternatives to street-gangs and corner-lounging and playing pitch-and-toss on the waste land behind the new factory, falls on voluntary organisations to Washington.

Fears Unjustified

Mr. Morgenthau's gloomy prediction on April 30 to the Senate Finance Committee that the deficit for the year would amount to £1,193,000,000 was unnecessarily pessimistic.

The deficit, however, is £96,000,000 more than the estimate made in January before all calculations were thrown out by the Supreme Court's decision that the agricultural processing taxes were illegal and before Congress approved, "despite the President's veto, the immediate payment of the veterans' bonus."

Positive Work

That is the positive work. That is the creating of citizens. But the moment you begin to talk about "juvenile delinquency" you take up a negative attitude. A boy becomes a criminal because of four main influences on him: heredity, environment, luck, and his own inclination. Exactly the same four influences, differently canalised, turn him into a good citizen.

Heredity no kind of present social organisation can change. If you are born the descendant of a long line of cattle-thieves and poachers, you are; but that is no reason why, however intense the urge to rustle cattle and dynamite trout, you need perform these anti-social tricks merely because all your uncles and great-uncles did. To be outstandingly good at anything, whether crime or world-saving, generally means a complete break from all inherited tradition and tendencies.

Other Things To Do

All the other influences are those which mould a child after birth. There is no need for any of them to be anti-social in effect. The average crime is seldom the result of deliberate malicious intention but of drift. There is, in crime, no "glorying in evil." The terminology by which crime is usually known shows how painfully benevolent and well-intentioned it is: you don't commit a crime, you "make a little mistake"; you are not found out, adjudged guilty and sent to prison, you "have a bit of trouble."

However, confusedly, the minds which use these phrases know evil from good and would rather have good, if they could just understand how. That is their pathos, and if they come under the right influences early enough, that is their chance.

Another Chance

The old lag muttering toothlessly to the magistrate "Give me another chance, me lord, I swear I won't let ye down," is simply doing his patter; but once upon a time that had meaning and purpose. It probably has even now, for the moment.

TREASURY FIGURES

HUGE DEFICIT AT CLOSE OF FISCAL YEAR

Largest Recorded In Peace Time

THREE YEARS OF NEW DEAL

Washington.—The third fiscal year under the New Deal ended at midnight on June 30.

The National Debt has increased by an enormous sum and there is a heavy deficit despite a substantial rise in revenue.

The figures, which illustrate what the Republican critics of President Roosevelt describe as the "New Deal carnival of spendings," show:

Treasury deficit of £342,000,000 for the past year, the biggest ever recorded in peace time;

Record national debt of £8,800,000,000, an increase of more than £2,600,000,000 since the Roosevelt Administration was inaugurated in March, 1933;

Revenue of £816,000,000, the highest in the country's history apart from the brief post-war period;

Expenditure of £1,758,000,000, compared with January's estimate of £1,418,000,000.

The following night the Secretary to the Treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, made a wireless report to the nation resembling Mr. Chamberlain's now world-famous Budget Day broadcast. He announced the final figures for the year based on last-minute telegraphic reports to Washington.

Fears Unjustified

Mr. Morgenthau's gloomy prediction on April 30 to the Senate Finance Committee that the deficit for the year would amount to £1,193,000,000 was unnecessarily pessimistic.

The deficit, however, is £96,000,000 more than the estimate made in January before all calculations were thrown out by the Supreme Court's decision that the agricultural processing taxes were illegal and before Congress approved, "despite the President's veto, the immediate payment of the veterans' bonus."

The "chance," which makes a person into a good citizen and not a criminal, lies, not in the most model prison or disciplinary institution, but in circumstances which make any desire to be a criminal unnecessary and silly. One's irritating 13-year-old godchild does not run off with the car from the garage in the evening, and try highway hold-ups with it, not because he is afraid of the law and punishment, but because he has hundreds of other things—cricket-nets, a stamp-collection, the new P. G. Wodehouse, acting a play with the children next door, or boxing or swimming—to divert his darting, restless attention. Those are lawful activities. Stealing the car is not. The more lawful and enjoyable activities, with the young, the less unlawful. It is as simple as that, really.

FRAUDULENT BANK CLERK
EMBEZZLEMENT OF $7,000

FOUR MONTHS' GAOL TERM

Wong Yat-sun, an ex-employee of the Overseas Banking Corporation, was this morning sentenced to four months' hard labour by Mr. C. B. Burgess at the Central Magistracy for obtaining $7,000 from the Wing Wing Hong firm in February by means of a forged document — a bill of collection — with intent to defraud.

Mr. Li Chor-chi was the complainant and said that at the time the defendant applied for a holiday, which was granted. The bank suspected nothing until the client came in about his account, relating to three amounts that had been paid in, when the fraud was discovered.

Defendant, who held a position of trust in the bank and had been employed there since 1924, had yielded to a sudden temptation. The bank was only proceeding on one charge, though there were three, and were not pressing the case, in view of his long association with the firm and the fact that he gave himself up.

ASCOT PRICES PUT UP

Man In The Green Hat

SPOILED THE HARMONY

Ascot.—About 70 sites for big marquees on the Ascot course, from which the crowds on the free side of the course at the races were supplied with refreshments, were sold by auction or Ascot Heath.

Prices varied from 40/- a foot frontage to 18/-.

It is a curious auction. A metropolitan police-sergeant booked each entry, and two constables marked off the length of each plot.

The same people buy the same sites year after year at the same prices.

Harmony Upset

As a rule the auction is a very friendly affair, but the harmony was upset somewhat last month by a man in a green hat, who dared, on two or three occasions to raise the bidding.

"Who's he?" people asked. "What right has he to bid against us?"

The auctioneer had to remind the company, "After all, this is an auction," and peace was restored.

"He made me pay an extra three pounds for my plot," said one purchaser.

ACCIDENT ON GLACIER

Londoner Killed In Norway

Oslo.

A London student, Hubert Douglas Sweeney, has been killed while climbing the Skagastolstindene mountain.

His companions, A. Hamilton Robin and Nigel Beaumont Thomas, tried in vain to help him when he slipped down a crevasse at the top of a glacier.

The three students were passing along the ridge when Sweeney bent down to pick up his spectacles, which had dropped. In doing so he lost his balance and fell down the glacier.

His friends arrived at the Turtagroo Hotel at 2 a.m. to report the accident. At dawn rescue expeditions were sent to the spot, but Sweeney's body could not be found.

Mountain Lakes, N. J.—The "Mountain Lakes Star," a one-penny, one-page, Republican newspaper, failed to go to press one week last month. And so the publication of a letter from Gov. Alfred M. Landon was delayed.

Gloria Lee Hoyt, aged 11, who is editor and everything else of the newspaper, found the public city about the letter she received following week.

LOCAL TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Two People Killed Last Week

RUNNING ACROSS STREET

In the Colony of Hong Kong, including the Island, Kowloon and the New Territories, during the week ended at 8 a.m. on Saturday last, there were altogether 45 traffic accidents, as the result of which two persons were killed and 16 persons were injured.

Of the persons killed, a Chinese male ran across the road in front of a moving motor bus and was fatally injured. A Chinese boy died as the result of injuries received when he was knocked down by a motor-lorry while running across the street.

Of the persons injured, eight were pedestrians who were either walking or running across the road, and were struck by vehicles. One tram-car passenger was injured while alighting from a moving tram-car.

Falling From Vehicles

Two lorry passengers and one motor-cycle passenger were injured through falling from moving motor-lorries and a moving motor-cycle respectively. A ricksha passenger was injured while alighting from a public ricksha.

A private motor-car driver was injured when his vehicle collided with a pillar. One vehicle driver and one passenger were injured as the result of collisions between vehicles.

Of the 45 accidents, 16 were collisions between vehicles; 15 were collisions between vehicles and pedestrians; and 14 accidents were due to other causes.

FORMER FIANCÉE SHOT

Youth Of 18 Sentenced To Death

Sentence of death for the murderer of his former sweetheart was passed last month at Shrewsbury Assizes on Ernest Robert Hill, aged 18, a farm labour.

It was alleged by the prosecution that he shot Dorothy Clews, aged 18, to whom he was formerly engaged.

Hill, who was recommended to mercy, declared that he had no intention of injuring the girl, and that he intended to fire into the air.

The girl was shot in the arm, and died from tetanus, which developed later. For the defence it was pleaded that the tetanus bacilli could have come from other sources, and that the wound itself was unlikely to cause death.

A girl swimmer raised an alarm and Lewis's body was later recovered.

BALLET FIRST NIGHT

Queue 48 Hours Before Show

At eight o'clock one Saturday evening last month the gallery queue began to form outside the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, for the following Monday's opening of the De Basil Russian Ballet season.

About 30 people waited all night, and when the official "chair man" arrived at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning with his stools, a queue of about 300 people stretched along the full length of the opera house.

Some enthusiasts, even when their places were secured by numbered stools for the performance 34 hours hence, waited on to see the dancers leave the house after the rehearsal. They sat chatting together, friends of many a long and rainy first-night vigil, and seemed loth to leave their hard-won seats.

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

The R.M.A. Dorado arrived from Penang at 11.40 a.m. yesterday, carrying 160,978 Kilos of mail.

The "m.v." Victoria, Lloyd Trieste liner, is due to arrive in Hong Kong this evening. She will dock immediately and one of her propellers will be changed. Leaving the dock the following morning the day will be spent at the wharf and the ship will sail for Europe at 5 p.m. on Thursday.

Falling From Vehicles

Two lorry passengers and one motor-cycle passenger were injured through falling from moving motor-lorries and a moving motor-cycle respectively. A ricksha passenger was injured while alighting from a public ricksha.

A private motor-car driver was injured when his vehicle collided with a pillar. One vehicle driver and one passenger were injured as the result of collisions between vehicles.

Of the 45 accidents, 16 were collisions between vehicles; 15 were collisions between vehicles and pedestrians; and 14 accidents were due to other causes.

CROWD BREAKS WINDOWS

Sir Oswald Mosley Besieged

Over 200 men and women Fascists, including Sir Oswald Mosley, were besieged for over an hour in the Hulme Town Hall, Manchester, one night last month by a crowd several thousand strong, which kept them imprisoned until police reinforcements cleared a way for the exit. Sir Oswald had addressed a meeting in the hall.

When Sir Oswald succeeded in making his way from the Town Hall to a Fascist Club in a street 200 yards away, a large section of the crowd turned its attention from the hall and poured into the narrow street, completely blocking it.

Stones were thrown at the club and at Sir Oswald's car, which was standing outside. Windows were broken and a Fascist flag torn down.

Finally police cleared a portion of the pavement and Sir Oswald ran across it, his car and drove away.

ROTARY MEETING

Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell On Life Insurance

At yesterday's meeting of the Rotary Club Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell, O.B.E., branch manager of the Manufacturers Life Insurance Co., gave an entertaining and amusing address on "Modern Life Insurance."

Mr. W. N. Thomas Tam, President, was in the chair. The following guests were welcomed: Messrs. W. E. Walsh, San Francisco, and S. P. Rice of Honolulu (Immigration Officials); M. J. Abbott, G. E. Wetton, H. R. Sturt, E. R. Childe, G. E. R. Divett, G. Bonhoff, W. Murdoch and J. P. Whitham, of Hong Kong.

WOODERSON TRIUMPHS AGAIN

Graham was third, five yards away, Corne being beaten into fourth place — an enthralling finish to the final gasp.

Inches In It!

The quarter-mile ended just as grandly. Brown made the running from first to last, and won by five yards, but the fight for second place between Rampling and Roberts the holder, kept the crowd rocking. At one time Roberts seemed to threaten Brown, so well did he run, but the effort did not last, and by virtue of a terrific sprint along the straight Rampling beat him on the tape.

How can I describe the hundred yards final? What wonderful race it was, with inches only between the first three. Osendarp left his countryman Berger, almost standing, and Pennington also.

Wonderful Finish

But Sweeney and Holmes, the Manchester University sprinter, kept Osendarp going all out, and so close on his flashing heels was Sweeney at the tape that many spectators swore he had won.

Yes, indeed, a wonderful race — and I expect great things from Sweeney at the Olympics.

A thunder of applause went crackling round the vast ring when it became known that Ward had beaten Shrubbs' record in the three miles after running one of his best races ever. Another record was beaten by Webster, of Cambridge University, when he leapt 12ft. 9in., and received the congratulations there and then of Arthur Turk manager of the Olympic team, who go out across the seas from Britain.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON
FOR H.K.H.A.

A number of meetings were held during the season to discuss questions arising and to nominate Umpires for important games. A number of examinations were carried out and resulted in three Civilian and seven Army personnel being passed as qualified Hockey Umpires.

The Board, with the approval of the Council, decided to issue Umpires' badges to qualified umpires at a cost of $2.00 each. The demand for badges proved, however, disappointing.

Interports

At the invitation of Hong Kong, a visit was received from The Macau Hockey Club on March 7 and 8. The match, Macau v Colony, was played on March 7 and resulted in a win for Macau by 1-0. The match between the Civilians and Macau was played on March 8 and again resulted in a win for Macau by 2-1.

The visitors were entertained on March 7 to dinner at the Peninsula Hotel followed by a dance at the Club de Recreio, both being presided over by Mr. A. A. Dand. Although poorly supported, the functions proved very enjoyable.

International Tournament

The third annual tournament between teams representing England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Germany, Portugal, and India, resulted in a win for Portugal by one goal to nil against England in the final. For the first time since the commencement of the Tournament China was unable to field a team.

The second annual match between the Combined Services and the Civilians was played on December 22 and resulted in a score of 2-2.

Award Of Badges

To add 1935 to Colony and International badges 4; To add 1934 to Colony badge and to International badge for 1935 2; To Colony badge 1; To combined Colony and International Badge for 1935 1; To add 1935 to International badge 7; To Colony badge for 1935 and to add 1935 to International badge 3; To International badge - for 1935 26.

The Council is grateful to all those who have assisted during the season in loaning grounds for practice and representative matches, for accommodation for seating and for changing, particularly to the President and Officers of the Club de Recreio for the use of their hall for the dance and arrangements made, and to umpires.

GOOD TENNIS PROGRAMME IN
"B" DIVISION

Another very interesting game which will go a long way towards deciding the third position is that between the Kowloon Cricket Club and Craigengower at King's Park. Craigengower have not fared as well as they were expected to, losing to Recreio, C.R.C. "A" and very unexpectedly to the Hong Kong University, while they have beaten the C.R.C. Civil Servants and the Indians.

Inconsistency

The outstanding feature of the K.C.C. displays to date has been their inconsistency. They shared the spoils in their matches against Recreio, University and HKCC. They should record victories over the Indians, the C.R.C. "B" and the C.R.C. respectively. Their only defeat to date has been at the hands of the C.R.C. "A" team.

In the remaining games the Recreio, University and HKCC should record victories over the Indians, the C.R.C. "B" and the C.R.C. respectively.

England won the first Test by 9 wickets at Lord's and the third and final Test will open at the Oval on August 15.

He could win only one stroke in that game and the squaring tenth. He had misjudged a ball that he thought was sailing out of court, and had been confounded by two glorious lobbs.

German Encouraged

Braced by his recovery, Von Cramm went on to take the eleventh game from 30. The rallies were still gloriously long and full of potential winners from both sides, and when Austin, coming up in the twelfth game, had forced Von Cramm to lift his backhand out of court, one felt the result was still open at six-all.

Then raising his game again after this reprieve, the German more took two games from 15.

And forcing drives were flowing freely and the footwork was surprisingly good; but it was Von

Cramm whose eye and hand remained loyal when the winning set was revealed.

Pace Modified

The second set, as one had expected, the pace of attack was modest and the high standard of the fit-out was not always maintained.

They were level up to three-all, each man holding his service, but in the ninth game, sensing the vital phase the German got his break and, though three times within a score of losing his own serve, fought out a thoroughly keyed-up rally in the ninth game.

Used to the ten-minutes interval on the continent, and anxious that his opponent not react physically from the rule of continuous play existing at Wimbledon, Von Cramm wisely gave Austin fuller rope in the third set.

He did not let on the chase ostensibly—he knew that Austin might run as we out some of his fire was presently damped

Perry Stimulated

This initial rebuff had a stimulating effect on the champion to plan and, as it happened, to spare a game to spare. The artist

Austin remained to the end; he was watching every ball and point newly like a racket was swinging on it as if it were a panther's tail.

But it was the German who governed the index rallies with his firm control of speed and height of his service, it was certain that a quick set would be placed to the champion's title.

Budge and Austin, by the way, returned to the Centre Court late in the evening, for Budge and Mrs.

Fahy to win a three-set match against Austin and Miss Stampmers in the mixed doubles.

The 25 Chapters of the 17th issue of the CHINA YEAR BOOK, edited by H. G. W. Woodhead, C.R.E., have as usual been revised or rewritten with the assistance of many experts, Chinese and foreign, and every effort has been made to bring information and statistics up to date.

UNIQUE APPOINTMENT

The appointment, by the British Lawn Tennis Association, of the trainer of the Arsenal Football Club, Tom Whittaker, to train the members of the British Davis Cup team was unique in the annals of the competition.

Tom Whittaker went to Australia in 1925 as a member of the English professional soccer team, but he broke a leg in a collision with T. Thompson at Wollongong soon after the team's arrival, and has never played soccer again.

CUP "DOUBLE"

Whittaker's ambition has been to land a double—a Cup double. His first "leg" came with the success of his team, Arsenal, in the Football Association's Cup.

The second "leg" is the British Davis Cup team. It is a strange coincidence that when Whittaker injured his leg at Wollongong he was attended by Tom Langridge, who trained the Australian Davis Cup team before it left for America.

NON-PLAYING CAPTAIN

The British team had a captain to guide and control them when they defended the Cup.

He was Mr. Roger Barrett, a contemporary of Norman Brookes, but it was not his job to train the team or to deal with injuries that the exacting nature of first-class tennis brings. Neither was it the task of Dan Maskell, the coach attached to the team and the All-England Club.

SETTLEMENT OF ASSYRIANS

Debate Raised In The Lords

London, To-day.

The Archbishop of Canterbury raised a debate in the House of Lords yesterday on the settlement of Assyrians in Syria and the decision of the League Council that the scheme already approved must be abandoned. Lord Stanhope, replying for the Government, explained the circumstances in which the Assyrian Committee had reached the decision to abandon the scheme for settlement in the Gab district in Syria, following representations from the French Government.

The Council had requested the Committee to continue its work with a view to securing the settlement of the Assyrians, and His Majesty's Government would give the Committee every support in its efforts.

Satisfaction was expressed at the evident determination of the League Council not to let the matter rest and the Archbishop withdrew his motion. — British Wireless Service.

HABEUS CORPUS ACTION

evidence, mixing up the date on which he was alleged to have been in Hong Kong, whereas he was actually in Canton; and secondly, when he stated that there was a meeting in the rooms of the King Nai Association in Hong Kong. But this was later denied by the father of the witness, who stated that such a meeting could never have been held there and that he did not remember meeting his son there.

In view of these discrepancies, which Counsel submitted did not substantiate the credibility of his evidence, he submitted that the case failed, and that the learned Magistrate should not have made a committal order.

With regard to the fourth fugitive, whose name very rarely appeared in the deposition of the Crown's chief witness, Counsel submitted that there was nothing to show that he had taken an active part in any of the meetings, although it was generally admitted that he was a "very good listener."

WEALTH OF DETAIL

Mr. D'Almada said in reply to Mr. Shenton's address that he admitted that Wong Yung-shan was an accomplice, but that the Magistrate had thought his evidence good enough to rely upon, in view of the wealth of detail which he had given the Court.

Under a rigid cross-examination lasting over two hours, he had

GOODS STOLEN BY HOUSE-BOY

Attempted Re-Sale To Compradore

London, To-day. Sentence of six weeks' hard labour was imposed on Chung Kwok-lan, aged 19, a house-boy employed by Mrs. G. B. S. Thompson of No. 554 the Peak, by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy this morning when he was charged with the theft of two tins of floor polish, two tins of boot polish and a tin of metal polish.

Sergeant Hill said that defendant was seen yesterday afternoon carrying a basket with the articles in it. He was stopped and questioned. He stated that he was taking the goods to be returned. Later, enquiries were made and it was found that he had taken the things from the house.

Defendant later told him that he intended re-selling the goods to a compradore. It appeared that a stock of goods had been purchased by the lady of the house and defendant thought that a few tins would not be missed.

On the first of this month defendant had his wages raised from $9 to $15 a month, and he had been recently promoted from market coolie to house coolie.

made only two slight discrepancies, as pointed out by Mr. Sheldon.

After Mr. D'Almada had dealt with the two discrepancies Their Lordships agreed with him on the matter of the first three fugitives, but stated that they would like to hear him on the fourth, to which Mr. D'Almada agreed that the evidence against him was not corroborated to any extent, and in that case he should be dismissed.

His Lordship the Chief Justice in summing up said: "The four fugitives against whom an order of committal under the Chinese Extradition Ordinance was made are here for a matter of habeus corpus. The question we have to deal with is whether an order nisi should be made against any one of them." The function of the Court in these proceedings is clear, and it for the learned Magistrate to decide whether there has been a case to his satisfaction.

The learned Magistrate agreed and put into writing his judgment, committing the four fugitives, with the grids for his action. My judgment is that the order is to be made absolute against the fourth fugitive, who is discharged, and dismissal against the first, second and third fugitives, who go to the Victoria Gaol.
